

Associated Press Cuts Ties with Gaza Freelancer Accused of Being Embedded with Hamas Terrorists

The Associated Press (AP) issued a statement Thursday in response to serious allegations against freelancers who contributed to AP's coverage of the Oct. 7 Hamas terrorist attacks in Israel.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's administration is demanding answers from several prominent news agencies after criticism emerged of their photographers and their links to Hamas on the day of its barbaric attack.

As Breitbart News reported Wednesday, AP said that it had no foreknowledge of the attack, even though its photographers appeared alongside Hamas terrorists from the first moments they broke through the Gaza border fence.
