

Doge boss Musk says US paid $59 mn last week to house illegal migrants in NYC luxury hotels

The US government has spent millions of dollars to house illegal immigrants in New York City's luxury hotels, Doge's Elon Musk has claimed.

The Tesla CEO is leading the front in cutting down government spending as he heads the Department of Government Efficiency. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the US government's disaster relief agency, has been Musk's latest target who has vowed to identify areas in which "waste" within the administration can be slashed.

In a post on X, Musk said, "The DOGE team just discovered that FEMA sent $59M LAST WEEK to luxury hotels in New York City to house illegal migrants. Sending this money violated the law and is in gross insubordination to the President's executive order."
