

Jury Finds Hunter Biden Guilty of All Three Gun Charges

A Delaware jury on Tuesday found Hunter Biden guilty on all three gun charges after only several hours of deliberating.

The historic verdict of the president's son reflects Hunter's high stakes gamble to go to trial instead of accepting a revised plea deal proposed in the summer of 2023.

Hunter faces up to 25 years in prison and $750,000 of fines, court filings say.

There is typically a two to three month delay between conviction and sentencing in the federal system. "We don't yet know what the sentencing guidelines would be if he's convicted on all counts," NBC News reported, "but one legal expert said they likely would specify around a year in prison."

Hunter's gun trial judge, Maryellen Noreika, recently delivered a one-year sentence to a defendant in a similar gun case. The defense asked for a six-month sentence, but Noreika gave him one year.
