

Shocking pics show bridges collapsing & homes underwater as 'once in a century' floods threaten 127million in China

Shocking footage shows swelling rivers causing havoc across the south of China by destroying bridges and flooding roads

AT LEAST three people have died with 11 still missing after severe floods only seen "once in a century" continue to wreck havoc in China.

Shocking pictures show bridges collapsing and homes left swimming underwater as landslides and torrential rainfall threatens to plague 127million locals all over the Guangdong region.

Dramatic visuals show the streets in the area filled with water as cars and roads are completely submerged.

Footage shows a bridge in the town of Xiaosanjiang, Guangdong battered and collapsing - leaving locals stranded.

The vicious river water can be seen dragging parts of the bridge away as it continues to be destroyed by the torrid weather conditions.

Continue reading HERE

Source:

<https://www.the-sun.com/news/11156340/dead-people-missing-evacuated-homes-floods-china-bridge-collapse/>

[Disclaimer]