

Weekly Update by Mark Armstrong - August 18, 2023

Greetings from Tyler,

I guess you saw the procession in Atlanta, with the fake eyelashes and the wig that thinks she'll be a superhero once she wins notoriety as "the one who took down Donald Trump." They just hate him. If you listen to a recent speech, you know why. If he ever gets back into power, it's going to be glorious. No More Mr. Nice Guy. He thought he could play nice in the beginning. He was content to be polite and let sleeping dogs lie. That's before they stabbed him in the back, coming from all directions. He had bad advice, and didn't know how corrupt everything was. Now he does, that's why the media and the deep state can never allow him anywhere near power.

Popular stories are now circulating insisting that the Constitution prevents Trump from ever holding public office again. We'll see. Maybe you didn't see the dog and pony show in Atlanta. The procession, led by Fani Willis, made me nearly apoplectic. She thinks she'll be the national hero who brings down Trump? In her dreams. They think they've got Trump where they want him. They better hide their eyes.

The news from Maui is heartbreaking. We don't know who or what to believe. Was the water shut off? Did underground pipes melt, meaning no more water pressure? Some of these idiots are using woke talking points in times of tragedy. Save the planet? Never mind the hundreds who can't be accounted for, there are considerations of equity and inclusion. (Sorry) There better not be any woke excuses for what's happened in Maui. Talk about turning paradise into Hades!

The worse the news gets for the pretender (Big Guy) the more indictments for you know who. They're busy prosecuting and convicting Trump on all the woke network TV channels, and giving short shrift to the news that we apparently have a president who's sold U. S. policy to our enemies. Glenn Beck said we'd been sold for 33 cents a head. Maybe that was in jest. It was probably more.

The prosecutor who had a sweetheart deal struck down by a judge has been named Special Counsel in the Hunter Biden probe. That inspires a lot of confidence! (Not) Maybe they can make it all go away. Many crimes have already gone away, thanks to the statute of limitations. They just couldn't get to them in time. They've got all the time in the world to go after Donald Trump, but Hunter? It was all on the up and up after all. They never lied about anything, despite all the evidence to the contrary.

You know the news on the dollar. Our enemies are trying to make transactions that avoid the U.S. dollar, and you know what that means. We've got more crises than we can keep up with, and the deep state doesn't want any interference.

We're having all kinds of speech outlawed, on account of hurt feelings. This is America, where we can say anything we want, NO MATTER WHAT. You can't yell "FIRE" in a crowded theater of course, but there's no shortage of suggestions about what Americans should be allowed to say. It's a good thing the speech police aren't at my house. We're in danger of having the whole nation devolve into anarchy. It's not clear that's not what they want!

We are blessed beyond comprehension. Unless we realize where those blessings came from, and why, we stand a chance of losing everything. God save America.

Mark
